The Bee and the Flea

Elements used in this book
In a field near the sea,
there lived a wee bee.
She lived near a wee lean flea.
Bea the Bee lived in a hole in a tree near the beach where a breeze came from the east.

For three days a week,
Lee the wee flea lived on a sheep.
The sheep lived in the weeds.
The sheep ate leaves from the weeds.
Lee the wee flea lived on a sheep.
Lee was not like other fleas.
He liked to eat sweet nectar from roses.
They went to the hive to see the queen.

She was sitting in the big seat.

"I have come to speak to you, dear queen," said Bea.

"Can Lee the Flea live in the hive?"

"It's a deal," said the queen.

"He can live in the hive for free if he keeps it clean."

"I have always dreamed of being a bee," said Lee.

So Lee leaped on Bea's back and off they went to the tree.

"Can Lee the Flea live in the hive?"

"I have come to speak to you, dear queen."

She was sitting in the big seat.

They went to the hive to see the queen.
Each day, Lee would sweep the hive three times.

He kept the hive squeaky clean.

And the queen let Lee feast on sweet nectar.
